

Handwritten text at the top of the page, possibly a header or title, including the word "MAGISTRUS".

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "Hans ...".

Main body of handwritten text, which is significantly obscured by a large, irregular water stain or tear on the right side of the page.

Vertical text on the left margin, possibly a list or index, written in a similar cursive script. It is partially cut off by the edge of the page.
